KNOX WOULD MAKE SENATE DISAPPROVE OF LEAG

SHERIFF FOILS PLOT TO OPEN

Weiman With Pistol and

ounty was thwarted Monday night by Sheriff Perry and Jailer Reeves when they placed a special guard on the jail and broke up the plans of escape of some of Stieby county's most dangerous-criminals. Murderers under sentence, others waiting for trial, highway robbers already convicted and other persons considered dangerous men had deverly planned to be add to the sentence.

cleverly planned to break jail and gain thair freedom.

A pistol smuggled into the cell of L. H. Welman, convicted of highway robbery in connection with the theft of the weekly payroll of the Green River Lumber company, was the chief weapon to be used by the prisoners in their effort to break for freedom Monday night. In the cell of Hamp Gholston, alias Will Brown; murderer of Isaac Levy, jeweler, was found an improvised machete, made from a bunk spring, one end being wrapped with bed ciothing for a handle.

The prisoners whispered from cell to cell early last week and planned the getaway. No sooner had the plan started than Jailer Reeves got on to it. He notified the sheriff and plans were made to break it up. The sheriff secretly placed extra guards around the jail to watch and allowed the schemers to continue to plan their diabolical work. Then last night, the date set for the wholesale delivery, the sheriff go busy and broke up the nicely planned scheme. It had been planned to empty the jail of all prisoners who cared to get away.

Among those implicated in the pro-scheme. It had been planned to empty the jail of all prisoners who cared to get away.

Among those implicated in the proposed jail delivery was E. F. Ketchens, sentenced to serve a sentence for life in the penitentiary for murder in the first degree; Hamp Gholston, alias Will Brown, slayer of Isaac Levy, South Main street jeweler; Tom Hill, negro, under sentence of 20 years for murder; Wheeler Stockley, negro, convicted of assault to murder and larceny from the person; Warner Chandler, siayer of into the youth at Dinstuhl's restaurant and sentenced to, serve 7 years in the state reformatory. L-H. Weigman, under sentence of from five to 15 years for Jighway robbery, and John Pickett, assault to murder and highway robbery.

The pian was well worked out. Gholston, according to the sheriff, was to ask for something and when Jailer Reeves got into his cell he was to knock him in the head with the improvised machete. The pistol, the sheriff says, which weight with the series of the union have no grievance against the Postai company and that, in their opinion, the effect would be to cripple that company, rather than the pistol and machete and hold back any one wishing to interfere until all persons connected with the delivery had escaped and them make their own getaway.

GOOD PLACE OPEN FOR YOUNG LAWYER

With another sweet political plum hanging within reach in the shape of the divorce proctor's job, the boys are beginning to get busy for the first meeting of the county court for the July term. It is up to the court to appoint a divorce proctor for a four-year term.

The proctor draws down a $5 bill for each divorce suit filed. It is his duty to endeavor to persuade those dissatisfied with marital ties to kiss and make up. Or, failing in this, to be reasonably sure that there are proper grounds for divorce.

The proctor's job at present is held by Capt. Charles L. Neely, who until recently was serving in France with the 115th field artillery. During Neely's absence Lee Winchester acted as proctor.

There has been considerable interference with the deliberations of the council of four over this question of primary interest. On Monday, for instance, the council of four was compelled to devote much of its session to consideration of the situation in Czecho-Slovakia, where the advance of the Hungarian soviet troops brought about what is admittedly a serious situation. An ultimatum has been sent to the Hungarian government, it is reported, demanding that the advance into Czecho-Slovakia be stopped and threatening to use allied troops to force Hungary to abandon her invasion of her neigh

The proposed change is said to be prompted mainly by a desire to forestall the possible formation of another combination of nations, with Russia, Germany and the former Germanic allies taking the leading roles. It is felt in some quarters, according to advices, that it would be easier to deal with Germany as a member of the league than if she remained outside.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The treaty fight broke out anew in the senate today slong new lines. The development premised to speedily bring to a head issues over the league of nations. Immediately at the opening of the session Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, Republikan, of the foreign relations committee and a former secretary of state, introduced a resolution to declare it the sense of the senate that the treaty can not be accepted in its present form, interwoven with the league of nations covenant.

It was construed as an attempt to put the senate on record as officially warning President Wilson and the American peace delegation at Paris that the ratification of the treaty will be opposed in its present form.

Although the storm appeared to pass over for the moment when Senator Knox's resolution was referred to the foreign relations committee without debate, it broke out again when Senator Pittman, Democrat, of Nevada, began reading into the record a speech by former President Taft in favor of the league of nations. Senator Singui, Republican, of Utah, had a moment before refused unanimous consent for printing the speech in record.

The resolution was offered by Senator Knox after a conference with Chairman Lodge of the committee and there were evidences that it would have the backing of most of those who have conjucted the fight against the league. The Knox resolution proposes that "the treaty shall be so drawn as to permit any nation to reserve without prejudice to itself for future separate and full consideration by its people the question of any league of nations" but that the obligations of Germany and her co-belligerents under the treaty shall not be thereby affected.

The Knox resolution also would declare it the policy of the United States government. "In order to meet fully and fairly our obligations of ourselvee man to the world, that the freedom and peace of Europe being again threatened by any power or combination of powers the United States will regard such a situation with grave concern as mence to its Foresees Complications.

In such an event the Knox resolution proposes that "the United States will consult with other powers affected with a view to devising means for the removal of such menace and will, the necessity arising in the future, carry out the same complete accord and cooperation with our eller co-belligerents for the defense of civilization."

Telegrams requesting J. P. Morgan, Henry P. Davison, Thomas W. Lamont, Jacob Schiff, Paul Warnurg and Frank A. (By Special Cable to The News Scimitar.)

PARIS, June 10.—Despite scattered denials, there seems to be every evidence that the Fiume question has been disposed of by one more of those characteristic compromises which the conference of peace is accustomed to call settlements. This compromise is the type of postponements of decision which have been made in so many contested questions. Actually it has been decided that Fiume and the territory between Fiume and the new Italian boundary shall be constructed into a new league of nations administered region.

This means that Fiume will have something of the character of Danzig. With additional districts its population will probably be Slavonic in the majority, but there is little doubt that York will pitch the first ball to Gov.

York Receives Medal.

Following the dimer at the governor's, a monster crowd saw Gov. Roberts pin a handsome gold medal on the big red-headed sergeant at the Ryman auditorium. Despite inclement weather, the auditorium was packed as neverhefore in its history. The crowds began to gather two nours before the time for the opening or the exercises. Many brought light lunches in order to be present when the doors opened and obtain good seats. A special section was reserved for those who had contributed to the York farm fund. Every available space was filled, including the enormous stage. An ovation such as never accorded a returned hero greeted York and his party unon their arrival shortly after 8 o'clock. The medal presented by Gov. Roberts in the name of the people of Tennescee is a Southern cross of diamonds and rubles, surmounted by a: spread eagle under which is the autional emblem and the seal of the state of Tennescee. The medal bears the inscription on the obverse "Service Above Self." The entire piece is suspended from a bar bearing the word "Valor, with red, white and blue ribbon. The reverse hears the inscription "Sergt. Aivin C. York—Christian Soldier—June 9, 1919—From the recoke of Tennescee."
